- On 15 October 1950 there were eight one hundred foot Czech barges on the Danube off Smederovo loading pyrites.
- The markings on the barges were CSPD with a four-figure number.
- The barges were manned by Czech crews, the senior members of which were eating at the Hotel Moskva at Smederovo.
- The pyrites were said to be destined for Czechoslovakia in the first instance. It is not known whether it is to be re-exported from there.
